

A Magnificent Showing in New Arrivals in FALL DRESS GOODS

The variety in dress fabrics was never more extensive. The values were never better and this is true of every single piece of fabric in our store.

Dress Goods for Fall

are here, ready and waiting for you. Attractive weaves and tones in a splendid range of patterns greets you and meet you at every turn, each striving to please you with its alluring beauty.

At 50c per yard we are showing a large line of Serges, especially good for the school girls' dresses. All the staple shades to select from.

At $1.50 we are showing a good line of the popular Brocades, extra fine grade and 40 inches wide. Colors, taupe, wine, and Labrador blue.

At 75c we are opening a fine grade of Imperial Serges, 42 inches wide, and the leading shades to select from.

At $1.00 we call your special attention to our line of Ottoman Cloth, which is very popular. A 42-inch cloth. Colors, black, wisteria, cope, gray and wine.

At 59c per yard you can find an extra fine grade of Serge. Good line of colors and 36 inches wide.

At $1.25, a very handsome line of Wool Crepes, 48 inches wide. Colors, cope, navy, brown and gray.

At $2.00 is our display of 45-inch Brocades, exceptional value at this price. Colors, wisteria, brown, cope and wine.

Special Window Display of Crepe Meteors

in all the leading shades for the coming season. These goods are very much in vogue and will be hard to get later on. 40 inches wide. Per yard only $2.00

Our line of Dress Trimmings is complete and always in the lead. When we say Trimmings for fall, people respond quickly. Look our line over to-day, even if you do not buy until later.

The Homer Fitts Company

Buy a New Home Sewing Machine and start your fall sewing right. Special prices to club members.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Daniel McDonald, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Angus McDonald of Kirk street, returned yesterday to his home in Boston.

John McKenzie, who received a broken leg in a runaway accident a few months ago, is now able to be out of doors with the aid of crutches and hopes to discard them in about ten days.

The Barre C. L. U. are making plans for the greatest Labor day celebration that has ever been held in Barre. The center of attraction will be at Inter-city park. For full particulars, see the posters distributed throughout the city. Every minute detail of the event is described on these posters. Make plans now to pass the day at Inter-city park.

John Berry of Richmond was a visitor in the city to-day. Berry came to secure the services of two ball players to play with Richmond against Bristol to-morrow at the Middlebury fair.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Misses Evelyn Phelps and Annie Averill left yesterday for Hartford for a few days' visit.

Jerome Berry of Richmond, a graduate of the class of 1908 at Goddard seminary, has accepted a position in the Norwich, Conn. hospital. He received a degree of M. D. from the University of Vermont medical college this spring. Dr. Alfred Freeman of this city is also an attendant of the Norwich hospital. Dr. Berry intends later to locate at Richmond.

R. Cantu, the photographer, will soon occupy new headquarters in the A. Tomasi building. Mr. Cantu has been located in the Merlo building on North Main street. Of late increasing business has demanded new quarters. Carpenters are engaged at present making a first class studio in the Tomasi building. Mr. Cantu will be able to take possession in a few weeks.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The Busy Bee class of the Baptist church will hold an ice cream social this evening on the lawn of the church.

Walter Adams of Worcester, Mass., is making an extended visit at the home of his parents on the Montpelier road.

Auction sale, O. J. Howe's, 370 North Main street, Saturday at 2 p. m. See ad. on page 8. O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

The People's Shoe store will be closed Thursday and Friday, preparing for the biggest clearance sale of footwear this season.

Wanted: Ten extra sales ladies for the big clearance sale of footwear at the People's Shoe store. Put in your application to-day.

Arnold Gravelin, who has been spending several days in Barre as the guest of Max Holden of South Main street, left this forenoon for his home in Gardner, Mass.

Horace K. Sowles, who has been spending his vacation on Beckley hill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sowles, has returned to Boston to take a month's practice in a hospital before entering Harvard medical college for the year's work.

Miss Avis Wheeler, who has been spending her vacation in Barre and Montpelier with friends, has gone to Methuen, Mass., for a couple of weeks. Sept. 15, she goes to Portland, Me., as instructor in music at Westbrook seminary for the coming year.

Tuesday's arrivals at the Buzzell hotel were as follows: K. E. Prouty, Somersworth, N. H.; A. M. Battles, Randolph; George Bent, Randolph; Stephen Jopez, Boston; H. Diversi, Concord, N. H.; Angelo Diversi, New York; A. Diversi, Concord, N. H.

After a few weeks' attempt to secure the Littleton, N. H., independent baseball team for Saturday's game, the Barre A. C. was unable to effect dates. Manager Guidici has secured the East Ryegate team for Saturday. This team is considered one of the best clubs in the state, having defeated both the strong Littleton and St. Johnsbury teams.

Auction Sale

At My Home, No. 370 North Main St., Barre, Vt.

Saturday, August 30 at 2 P. M. sharp

Having sold my place, will sell my household goods on the above date. Goods will be placed on lawn in front of house, where all can see them: 1 chamber suite, 6 bedsteads, 4 springs, 4 mattresses, 1 feather bed, 2 extension tables, 1 nice parlor table, 4 smaller tables, 1 parlor lamp, 2 hanging lamps, 2 easy chairs, 3 rockers, lot of odd chairs, 1 Wheeler and Wilson sewing machine, 6 carpets, 1 Glenwood range, nearly new, 1 refrigerator, 1 ice cream freezer, 5 burner oil stove, 1 wood heater with pipe, 1 lawn mower, wash tubs, wringer, boiler and bench. Cooking utensils, and a quantity of other useful articles.

Remember the date, Saturday, Aug. 30, at 2 p. m. sharp, at my home place, 370 North Main street.

O. J. HOWES.
O. H. HALE, Auctioneer.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Another bargain day Saturday. C. N. Kenyon & Co.

See the "Pirates" baseball club in action at the Pavilion to-day.

Leon Gateni of Granite street returned last night from a few days' visit to Boston.

Reduction on all stamped and made-up waists at Miss Rowell's, 161 North Main street.

Dog River Valley fair, Northfield, Vt., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 2, 3 and 4.—Adv.

We have just received a new stock of binder twine. Come in and get our prices. N. D. Phelps Co., Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McCarthy of Fairbault, Minn., are passing several days in Barre as guests at the City hotel.

Miss Beth Sanders of Jefferson street went to-day to Groton, where she will pass a week in camp at Groton pond.

Among the business visitors in the city to-day were W. W. Baker of Newbury and H. N. Kimball of Enosburg Falls.

Miss Bertha C. Bau will resume teaching her class of pianoforte students September 2 at her home at 59 Franklin street.

The county picnic of the L. A. A. O. H., which was to have been held Saturday, has been postponed until Saturday, Sept. 2, 3 and 4.—Adv.

George N. Tilden and a party of Dog River fair directors went this morning to Morrisville to attend the Lamolite county fair.

Miss Daisy Rae of Blackwell street, who has been visiting at Enosburg Falls for the past few days, returned to the city last evening.

Mrs. H. W. Shores and two children returned home yesterday after three weeks' visit with friends in St. Johnsbury and other places.

Every package of baby food we sell is fresh. The baby's health depends on that kind during hot weather. "The Depot Square Drug Store."

There will be a regular meeting of the Central Labor union in the carpenters' hall Friday evening at 7:30. All members requested to attend.

The L. A. A. O. H. ladies will hold a meeting at room 37 Miles building Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Every member is earnestly requested to attend.

Paul Pierson of Patterson street left last night for Boston and will return in a few days in a Ford car, which has been sold to Woodbury parties.

Mrs. Frank A. Gove and family of Eastern avenue have returned home from Fairlee, where they have been passing two months in camp at Fairlee lake.

Mrs. James Shaughnessy, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Snow, at the City hotel, left this afternoon for her home in Manchester, N. H.

Pea coal and nut coke when mixed make a dandy kitchen fuel. Try some. The D. M. Miles Coal Co., 122 North Main street. Telephone 133 and 417-M.

We have received another shipment of the famous "special service" working shoes; do not miss getting a pair out of this lot. Five per cent. discount. Eastman Bros.

A. B. George, a member of the well-known monumental firm of George Bros., of Dixon, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for a several days' stay in the Barre granite belt.

Miss Agnes Olson, who is employed with the Singer Sewing Machine company offices at Burlington, arrived in the city yesterday to spend a week at the home of her parents.

There will be a joint meeting of the amusement committees of Clan Gordon and the ladies' auxiliary to the clan in the Clan Gordon rooms, Bolster block, Friday evening, Aug. 29, at 7 o'clock.

Arthur L. Boyea of Highland avenue, who has been passing several days with relatives in Plattsburg and Malone, N. Y., resumed his duties at the Boyea tailor shop on North Main street this morning.

Mrs. Dora N. Aldrich of Northfield and her sister, Miss Katherine McNally, of Malden, Mass., who is making an extended stay in Vermont, arrived in the city to-day for a few days' visit with friends.

Angelo Diversi of New York and Henry Diversi of Concord, N. H., arrived in the city last evening to pass a few days on business in the city. Angelo Diversi is now connected with the hotel business in New York.

J. A. Ritchie of Red King, Ind., and Frank L. Cheesemen of Peru, Ind., who came here from Boston for "Barre Day," are among the granite retailers who are passing the week in the city. They are registered at the City hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Page, daughter, Priscilla, and Lon Page left to-day for Morrisville to attend the second day's meet of the Lamolite county fair. Pal Dillard, the young race horse belonging to Mr. Page, is entered in to-day's races.

George Benjamin, on the road from Barre to Montpelier, will hold on the 10th of September a commission auction sale of stock. Any parties desiring to list cattle can do so by communicating with him or D. A. Perry, the auctioneer.

Dan A. Perry of the Perry Real Estate agency has sold at public auction the house on Bailey avenue in Montpelier, owned until recently by W. A. Ellis of Montpelier, to Mrs. George Blanchard also of Montpelier. The latter buys the property for an investment.

The room committee for "Barre day" wish to thank all those who kindly donated rooms that were not occupied. Owing to the uncertainty of the number of guests expected, the committee were obliged to solicit more rooms than were occupied.

Positively last chance to purchase summer hats. My store will be closed from Aug. 30 to Sept. 8, so that I may attend the millinery openings in Boston and New York.

In spite of the inclement weather, a large number gathered last night in the grange hall of the Cobble hill school-house for an evening's song service. Rev. George H. Holt was leader and gave a brief address. It was voted that these meetings be continued through the fall and winter, to be held on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings.

The jewelry store in the Granite Savings bank building on North Main street, which was recently sold by Fred King to Vernon E. Carleton of Middleboro, Mass., is undergoing a complete renovation. The new owner of the business, who recently arrived in the city, will effect several changes in the interior, work on the alterations having been started this morning.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will hold an auto and lawn party Friday evening, Aug. 29, at the home of Mrs. Edwin Kene. Automobiles will leave the Presbyterian church from 6 to 7:30 for rides around the city and then to party. Rides, 10c each. Children under 10, free if accompanied by adults. All are cordially invited. Auto rides alone will be given if preferred.

TALK OF THE TOWN

You will want one of those specials Saturday at Kenyon's.

Monday, Sept. 1, is the day vaudeville starts at the Pavilion. Watch for names of acts.

Our big sale of house dresses is going on; prices, 79c, 89c, 98c. Paris Shirt-waist House.

Dog River Valley fair, Northfield, Vt., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 2, 3 and 4.—Adv.

Miss Katherine Murray has returned from a two weeks' vacation spent in Maine and has resumed her position at the Perry & Camp store.

A. Denevin of New York, an advance agent of "The Sacrifice," which is booked for the Barre opera house, was a visitor in the city yesterday and to-day.

Miss Edith Gamble of Division street and Miss Annabelle Brescette of Barret, who is passing a two weeks' vacation at home in Barre, went this morning to Waterbury, where they will pass several days with friends.

The condition of Mrs. Henry Brown of Elmwood street, who underwent a serious operation at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier Saturday, continues to improve steadily, according to reports received here this morning.

Miss Mabel Stark, who recently returned to work at the Barre Savings bank, has succeeded Miss Marion Taylor, who completed her duties there a few days ago. Miss Taylor has gone to her home at Lamb's Center, N. H.

Herbert C. Merrill, a student at Goddard seminary, who has been passing the summer in Graniteville, left this forenoon for his home in West Somerville, Mass., where he will remain until session on the hill are resumed.

S. Homer Jackson, ex-public service commissioner, will discourse on some labor subject at the Labor day celebration at Inter-city park. He speaks at 1:30 in the afternoon. Avail yourself of the opportunity to hear one of Vermont's prominent orators.

John Clari and Joseph Comolli, who played with the Logan Squares of Montpelier at Morrisville yesterday, returned to the city to-day. The Logan Squares defeated the Morrisville team by the score of 11 to 8. Joe Weafer, the Italian pitcher, twirled for Morrisville.

The room committee for "Barre day" wish to thank all those who opened their homes to the guests and also those who kindly donated rooms that were not occupied. Owing to the uncertainty of the number of guests expected, the committee were obliged to solicit more rooms than were occupied.

Patrick McMahon, the veteran flagman, who has warned teamsters and pedestrians away from the M. & W. and C. V. crossings on Granite street for a good many years, is confined to his home by illness. Fred Julian, a C. V. back trackman, is taking his place. Mr. McMahon has had but few detentions from duty on account of illness in his long years of service at the two crossings.

The Vermont football league season is drawing to a close. But a few games remain to be contested. It is expected that the league will conclude the season in about two weeks. This is the first season that a soccer league has been instituted in Vermont, and from the very start it has proved to be a success. At present the Barre Rangers are leading and seem to have the pennant clinched.

The Rangers will play Saturday at the Berlin street grounds against the Barre Hill Rovers.

Miss Jessie Beattie of 59 Brook street left this forenoon for Haverhill, Mass., where she will make a short visit with friends before going to Franklin, N. H., where Sept. 1 she will assume her new duties as superintendent of the new Franklin hospital. Miss Beattie is a nurse of more than local reputation and for a number of years she was identified with the Cottage hospital at Claremont, N. H. Her friends in Barre and elsewhere will be pleased to learn of this recognition of her ability.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED

WANTED—To work by the day dressmaking. Address letters to "E. G." care Times office. 1913

FOR SALE—1 kitchen table, 1 Jewel gas range with two ovens; 1 White sewing machine; all in excellent condition and extremely real bargain. Inquire 45 Pearl street. 1913

WANTED—A capable woman or girl for general housework. Apply 7 Clarendon avenue. Mrs. Fred L. Laird, Montpelier. 1913

BARRE OPERA HOUSE

FOX & EATON, Lessees.
JOHN E. HOBAN, Resident Mgr.

Friday, August 29

CATE'S

Symphonic Band

Featuring

Walter H. Cate

The World's Greatest Saxophone Soloist in a High-Class Musical Entertainment

Prices: - 25, 35, 50

On sale at Kendrick's Wednesday.

BARRE OPERA HOUSE

FOX & EATON, Lessees.
JOHN E. HOBAN, Resident Manager.

Monday Evening, September 1

MISS BLOSSOM BAIRD

— IN —

The Sacrifice

BY W. A. TREMAYNE

A First-Class Play

Fine Company

New Scenery and Costumes

Prices—35c, 50c and 75c.

Box Seats, $1.00

On sale Friday morning at Kendrick's.

Final Clean Up Sale

Last Call on Summer Goods

Now it is Ladies' Summer Night Robes, low neck, short sleeves, dainty combinations of laces, embroideries and fine cottons. Best values to be found anywhere at our regular prices. For a few days to reduce stock, all regular

87c Robes for 75c
$1.25 Robes for 98c
1.50 Robes for $1.19
2.25 Robes for 1.69

Remember, all Percales and Gingham 10c this week. Parasols one-half price. Summer Coats and Suits greatly reduced.

LET US SHOW YOU—YOU WILL FIND IT PAYS TO TRADE HERE

HENRY W. KNIGHT, Barre, Vt.

Successor to Veale & Knight

ORANGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Flanders Were Surprised on Anniversary.

Orange and Mrs. Royal Flanders of Orange were very pleasantly surprised at their home Monday night, when a hundred of their friends gathered to remind them of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. In the early part of the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Flanders were spirited away and on returning found the house filled with friends. The evening was spent in cards, games, music, etc. After refreshments of ice cream and cake, Mr. and Mrs. Flanders were presented many useful articles of silver and also a purse of silver, to which Mr. Flanders fittingly responded. At a late hour the party broke up, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Flanders many more happy years of wedded life.

Two roaring "Keystone" comedies at Dreamland to-day.

Miss Josephine Watson of Cliff street who has been visiting at New York for ten days, has returned to the city and resumed her duties at the John B. Kelly company.

ALL NEXT WEEK

IN ALL CANADA NONE BETTER THAN

SHERBROOKE FAIR

25 CENTS ADMISSION 25 CENTS ADMISSION

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday

WONDERFUL

ATTRACTIONS—RACES—FIREWORKS

Special Excursions and Fares on All Railroads

The Annual Holiday of the People—Old and Young

Marked Down Sale

ON GOLF GOODS AT DROWN'S

$2.50 Clubs - $2.00
$2.00 Clubs - $1.60
$1.50 Clubs - $1.20

20 per cent discount on Golf Bags.

DROWN'S DRUG STORE

DRUGS AND KODAKS 48 No. Main St.

Wait for the Big Season-End Sale of C. S. Andrews'

Everybody knows the genuine bargains offered at these sales; giving the shoe-wearing public a chance to get footwear at about one-half price.

Peoples Shoe Store

C. S. Andrews, Prop'r. Barre, Vt.

Plastergon

For covering ceilings, walls, etc. Get samples free.

STEEL CEILING

We have in stock ceiling material suitable for any room in the house.

C. W. AVERILL & CO.

Tel. 439-W Barre, Vermont

DREAMLAND THEATRE

4,000 Feet of Feature Film To-day

The Barrier

(In Two Reels)

It's a Broncho—A terrific fight between two soldiers. The uprising of the Indians and the massacre of the Indian agent and his staff. An attack on the stage coach and the sensational rescue of a woman from the Redskins. Thrilling battles between soldiers and Indians.

ALGY ON THE FORCE

— and —

HIS UPS AND DOWNS

Two rip-roaring Keystone comedies.

THE MAN FROM THE CITY

A strong rural drama.

Admission Five Cents

Coming Friday—"With Lee in Virginia"—A Thrilling Kay Bee War Drama.

PAVILION Theatre

4,000 Feet of Feature Film To-day

THE ROAD TO RUIN

A "Flying A"—A distinct out-of-the-ordinary, highly pleasing subject.

DREAM HOME

An unusual child story, presenting Rima Hodges, the prettiest baby in the world.

MUTUAL WEEKLY

Showing the "Pirates" (Pittsburg National League baseball club) in action—and many others.

ROSIE'S REVENGE

A comedy of a cantankerous cook.

ADMISSION: - 5 CENTS

Coming Friday—"The Lost Dispatch"—It's a Kay Bee Two-Reeler

Sweaters and Mackinaw Coats

We are showing a complete line of Sterling and Starr Shaker Knit Sweaters from $5.00 to $10.00. We are satisfied that there is none better.

Also a complete line of Mackinaw Coats from $7.50 to $12.00. We would like the privilege of showing you these lines.

The Frank McWhorter Co.